- GUILTY GEAR
- NEW FEMALE CHARACTER
- THE ESA
- MARIO GOLF: SUPER RUSH
- XBOX & BETHESDA GAMES SHOWCASE
- IGN EXPO EVENT

1. Geoff Keighley's Summer Game Fest took the reins when E3 disappeared in 2020, and it'll still be with us in 2021, continuing after the Kick Off Live show on June 10.
2. Steam Next Fest is the rebranded version of the Steam Game Festival, and it'll be pretty similar in focus. There'll be a pile of developer livestreams and "hundreds" of free game demos to enjoy throughout the six-day event (June 16- June 22).
3. E3 is a digital event running from Saturday, June 12 through Tuesday, June 15. It will feature both press conferences and a video stream running through all four days of the event.
4. Final Fantasy 7 Remake: Intergrade (June 10) was one of the best video games of 2020 when it launched on the PlayStation 4; now, an even more polished version, 'Intergrade,' will be released exclusively on the PlayStation 5.
5. Guilty Gear: Strive (June 11) was the sixth fighting game in the main Guilty Gear franchise, this new sequel will feature 15 characters at launch, including two newcomers: Giovanna and Nagoriyuki.
6. One of the most critically acclaimed 3D platformer franchises is coming to PlayStation 5. Ratchet and Clank: Rift Apart (2021) casts you as the titular characters, but also as a new female character named Rivet.
7. From June 25, 2021, Mario Golf: Super Rush will be available on Nintendo Switch. The latest entry in the Mario Golf series sees Mario and friends return to the fairway for traditional golf, but also wild new modes including Speed Golf. There's also an RPG-style story mode to keep you playing even when the friends log off.
8. Xbox & Bethesda Games Showcase was a 90-minute show that will be packed with everything you want to know about the line-up coming out of Xbox's partnership with Bethesda, the incredible games coming to Xbox this holiday, upcoming releases on Xbox Game Pass, and more.

JULY

EVENTS LIST

- NACON
- THE TENNOCON 2021
- ELECTRONIC ARTS
- THE SECOND PART OF GDC 2021
- MONSTER HUNTER STORIES 2
- CRIS TALES(JULY 20)
- THE FORGOTTEN CITY
- EA
- CAPCOM
- THE ASCENT (JULY 29)

1. Accessory maker and game publisher Nacon will showcase its upcoming wares in a YouTube and Twitch stream called Nacon Connect, set to broadcast on Tuesday, July 6.
2. The TennoCon 2021 date is set for Saturday, July 17, and as ever, the devs will use the event to reveal some of the big updates on the way to Warframe.
3. Electronic Arts has announced that the 2021 edition of its own gaming showcase, EA Play Live, will be held on July 22 as a virtual event. While it's not an official part of E3 as such, EA Play Live usually falls close by the ESA's event, so it's a bit of a surprise that it'll instead come round over a month after E3 this year.
4. The second part of GDC 2021 will be the traditional weeklong event held from July 19-23. This will also be when the Independent Games Festival and Game Developers Choice Awards will be held. The latter awards will be streamed online.
5. Monster Hunter Stories 2 | July 9. Monster Hunter Stories is the exceptionally cute spinoff series from the main Monster Hunter line. Unlike Monster Hunter World, you'll tame, befriend, and ride "monsties" and fight with them in turn-based battles.
6. Cris Tales(July 20) is a very stylish love letter to classic JRPGs. Crisbell's turn-based battles all hinge on controlling time, seeing the effects of your attacks in the future and using them to prepare in the present.
7. The Forgotten City(July 28) is Originally an impressive Skyrim mod, The Forgotten City has now expanded into a much bigger standalone game. It takes you back to ancient Rome to solve the mystery of a city whose citizens were all turned to gold.
8. EA has chosen to hold its showcase in July this year and not around E3. Expect the publisher to go over big titles like the new Battlefield, Dragon Age, and Mass Effect games in addition to new Madden, FIFA, and NHL games.

AUGUST

- CHINESE FORTNITE
- CANCELLED ART

- 1.The International 2021, the tenth iteration of the annual Dota 2 global esports tournament, was held in Bucharest, Romania. It holds the record for the largest esports prize pool of all time at $40 million.
- 2.NetEase acquired Grasshopper Manufacture from GungHo Online Entertainment.
- 3.Krafton acquired Unknown Worlds Entertainment.
- 4.Bad news for those of you sticking with the PS4 and Xbox One a little longer - you'll miss out on the long-awaited Destroy All Humans 2 Reprobed. We knew this much already, but in an interview, the devs shed some light on the decision. Assistant creative director Stefan Schmitz revealed that this was to avoid "weaker visuals", and promises that the sequel will be "a big step forward" for the series.
- 5.Originally, it was revealed that online support for Halo games on Xbox 360 would be cut this December. However, fans are now being given another month to relive their childhood, as the new termination date is January 13, 2022.
- 6.Moving onto another ridiculously popular online game, we have a Resident Evil and Fortnite crossover. Jill Valentine and Chris Redfield are now playable on the Island, released alongside alternative outfits for the pair.
- 7.The Persona series hit a huge milestone this year, surpassing 15 million sales worldwide. That figure is 25 years in the making, with the first game, Revelations: Persona, launching back in 1996.
- 8.YouTube streamer Valkyrae has spoken at length about the whole RFLCT debacle - but was admittedly a little contradictory. While she said she believes in the product and its claims - even going as far as to say she thought it would be "revolutionary" - she did admit she doesn't want to be involved with it anymore. However, as she admits herself, this likely isn't possible as she is under a contract.

NOVEMBER

- NETFLIX
- DEVOLVER DIGITAL
- TAKE-TWO INTERACTIV
- G4
- EPIC GAMES
- RETURNAL HASN'T BEEN GETTING A TON OF UPDATES

4. G4, the gaming-focused TV network that shut down in 2014, was relaunched on various linear TV and streaming services.
5. Epic Games acquired Harmonix.
6. Returnal hasn't been getting a ton of updates, and given its popularity maybe it doesn't need them. So that just made fans even more surprised when the official Twitter account appeared to hint that some DLC is on the way.
7. Finally, we have some idea of what we're in store for, as CD Projekt's president Adam Kiciński revealed in an interview that both the next-gen upgrade and 1.5 patch will launch in early 2022. He revealed that they were delayed because the developers simply weren't ready, which hopefully mean the company is learning from its mistakes.
8. When this 50-year old man was entrusted with a truckload of new games and next-gen consoles, he must have thought he hit the jackpot. He, therefore, did the exact opposite of what he was asked to do, and attempted to resell the stock himself.
9. RuneScape Adds New Party Hats For The First Time In 20 Years.
10. November 2021 is a pretty busy month for gaming releases as much-anticipated titles like Forza Horizon 5, Call of Duty: Vanguard, Battlefield 2042, Grand Theft Auto remastered trilogy and more will be launching this month.
